POLITICAL PARADE

By CLEM WHITAKER

California's phenomenal climb to the top rung of the industrial ladder in the United States during the last few years, which may go far toward bolstering payrolls and providing employment here when the boys come marching home, also threatens to bring economic headaches and political problems during the post-war years that are entirely new to this state.

Emil Brisacher, president of an advertising agency, touched on problems of the new era a few days ago in an address before the San Francisco Advertising club, when he declared:

"We have crowded 50 years industrial development into two years. We will hold our population gain, but the post-war switch-over is going to bring plenty of headaches to war industries."

"Few people realize that four-fifths of war output represents government financing. This situation could usher in unheard of congressional peace-time control of business since our government now owns one-fifth of industrial America."

That statement spotlights the fact that California, perhaps more than any other state, may become a major battleground in the post-war struggle to determine whether government will retain and expand its hold on business and industry, or whether government-financed war plants will be sold and transferred to private management to become an integral part of the Nation's free enterprise system.

Comments Mr. Brisacher: "We won't need any artificial controls after the war, because competition will cut the cost of distribution to the bone. The inefficient will fall by the wayside. Just as advertising has enabled the food industry to reduce the cost of distribution two-thirds in the past 20 years, so will advertised brands develop self-service and lower distribution costs in all types of stores."

The need for government controls as Mr. Brisacher asys will not exist, but that does not necessarily mean that government controls will be relaxed. There are those in Washington, and in California, too, who are prepared to make an all-out fight to socialize all industry, or at least to launch vast public ownership projects when the war ends—and the natural place to begin is in the industries where the government already has a financial interest, due to war-time financing.

Labor relations, a critical problem in California during the years preceding the war, also promise to become a major headache during the after-war years unless calm counsel prevails and labor and management learn to work together and live to-

Spring Party to Be Gala Event of Friday, May 7

Gala event of the season will be the Spring Party, a benefit for war organizations, given by the Country Woman's club in the club rooms at the library.

The party will begin at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, May 7, under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Jeffers, president of the club and general chairman for the day.

Theme for the afternoon is Spring Gardens and chairman of decorations is Mrs. E. L. Farnham, assisted by Mrs. Roy Magnuson and Mrs. Joseph Agostinho.

Guests may play bridge or other games as they choose or bring Red Cross sewing if they wish.

Door prizes will follow the garden theme and the committee in charge of them includes Mrs. R. H. Hyde, Mrs. C. P. Klassen and Mrs. Anthony Jurras.

Tea will be served later in the afternoon by the following committee: Mrs. W. H. Van Dyke, Mrs. G. E. Farley, Mrs. I. R. Abbott, and Mrs. A. D. Rice. Each member of the club is expected to buy one ticket and sell at least one. Mrs. Sue Boyce is ticket chairman. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Boyce, Mrs. Jeffers, or Mrs. A. W. Wellington of San Jose.

High P.-T. A. To Sponsor Demonstration

The Campbell Union High School P.-T. A. invites all who are interested to a demonstration on care of household electrical appliances, to be given by a representative of the Pacific Gas and Electric company in the little theater on Monday, May 3 at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. H. F. Cousins, newly installed president of the P.-T. A. and her executive board will meet with Mrs. Carl Field, retiring president and her executive board, at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, May 4 at the Field home on North Second street. After the meeting the group will enjoy a pot-luck luncheon.

The spectacular population growth which the state has experienced as a result of the development of its industries—with the new population largely concentrated in the big cities—may also serve to bring new political problems, as the approximate balance of power between rural and urban districts is no more. Heretofore, while the cities had greater voting strength than the rural areas, the disparity was not so pronounced—and the country districts usually made up for it by voting more solidly for what they wanted.

They'll be crowded, critical years, those post-war years, and California will have need of the ablest leadership in its history.

Menuhin Concert to be Most Thrilling Event of Series

Yehudi Menuhin plays in the civic auditorium, San Jose, this Friday night, April 30, at 8:15. From the advance sale and eager enthusiasm evidenced, the recital will be one of the most thrilling in the history of the San Jose Concert Series.

Menuhin's program includes: Sonatino G major, Dvorak; Partita No. 3, E major, (for violin alone), Bach; Concerto No. 2, "La Campanella," Paganini; Negro Spiritual Melody, Dvorak-Kreisler; Danse d'Alma, (dedicated to Yehudi Menuhin,) Adolph Baller; Flight of the Bumble Bee, Korsakof-Hartman; Serenade Melancolique, Tchaikowsky; La Chasse, Kreisler; La Vida Breve, (Spanish Dance), De Falla-Kreisler. Adolph Baller will be at the piano.

Invitations to the civic reception, which is to immediately follow the concert, are available, on request, to patrons of the concert, from the San Jose or Los Gatos chamber of commerce or from members of the committee.

Campbell Branch of Red Cross Increases Activities

Musical Program Feature of Club Meeting Tuesday

A fine musical program was presented Tuesday at the Kiwanis meeting by the Campbell Union Grammar school orchestra under the direction of Richard O. Gordon, who also acted as chairman.

Orchestra selection included "Merry Widow Waltz," Military March, and "Rhapsody in Blue" by George Gershwin.

Patricia Pomeroy gave a violin solo with piano accompaniment by Lorraine Wood and Aileen Ciraulo a saxophone solo, "Moonlight Sonata" accompanied by the orchestra. As a finale the group played "There's a Star Spangled Banner Somewhere" with the vocal of the number sung by Velma Zimmer. This number was dedicated to Lowell Benson who is about to enter active service.

Members of the club presented Benson with a duffel-bag as a parting gift.

President W. H. Van Dyke gave a short report of the meeting held in San Jose Monday evening in which the entire 12th district was represented.

"Doc" Eldridge of Los Gatos was a welcome visitor who complimented the orchestra on its work.

Next week Henry Buell of San Jose will be the speaker, his subject: "What the public utilities are doing in War Work," with Dr. W. R. Morgan scheduled as chairman.

V-Mail Letter Received From Sgt. Kersgard

The following V-mail letter was received recently by Rev. J. H. Bennett from Sgt. Edwin Kersgard, a well known Campbell boy, high school graduate and San Jose State college student:

Still Somewhere in England
April 10, 1943

Saturday Evening
Dear Rev. Bennett,

I received your "V" letter and was very glad to hear from you.

How is everything in "dear old Campbell?"

My Mother has probably told you that I have met Eugene Green over her in England. You remember Eugene, he was in my patrol in the Scout troop—good old Troop 28. It is funny how one meets old friends far away from home.

The other day I received a card from Warren Johnson also an old friend from Campbell. The card was mailed last July from San Francisco. I will write soon again.

Best Wishes for Easter
Edwin

St. Lucy's club will hold its monthly meeting on next Thursday afternoon May 6 at 2 o'clock in the parish hall.

Several Divisions of Service Are Established

The great increase in Red Cross activities in the National Red Cross area with local headquarters in San Francisco has made necessary additional activities in the Campbell Red Cross branch.

The several divisions of service so far established by the local council and the chairmen who have accepted the responsibilities of the various departments are:

Disaster, Preparedness and Relief, which includes requisitioning of food and clothing, arranging for shelter, and registration at a shelter, L. J. Carboni.

First Aid and Accident Prevention, W. H. Van Dyke.

Nursing, Home Nursing, Nurses Aides, Mrs. Frank Jacobson.

Volunteer Service, Staff Assistance and Production, Mrs. Ray Wood.

Nutrition and Canteen, Mrs. H. C. Gardner.

Junior Red Cross, Mrs. Alfreda Runge; Surgical Dressings, Mrs. E. L. Farnham; Blood Donor Service, Mrs. Paul Becker; Home Service, G. E. Farley.

Some of these committees will function specifically only in case of disaster, but must have things organized ready for such a contingency.

Some of the others have been very definitely at work, and others will be busy in the near future.

Volunteers are requested to contact the chairman of the branch in which they will be willing to serve.

WAR FUND DRIVE

The final report on the Campbell district Red Cross war fund drive was made Monday, with a grand total of $3,296.83 turned over to the head office in San Jose of which the Campbell unit is a branch. Much of this amount is available for local use and in case of a disaster here more can be obtained.

Forming the local Red Cross Council are Dan W. Clark, chairman, Guy E. Farley, secretary, Mrs. Clarence Fagalde, Mrs. Howard J. Smith, Mrs. Edna F. Smith, Ray Mathis and Ira Grim.

Campbell donors to the Red Cross blood bank Monday were Herbert Cohen, Mrs. Sylvia Jacobson, Mrs. Monica Parr, Mrs. Anna N. Klassen, Mrs. Lenore R. Weaver, and Mrs. Roberta Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. McDonnell are the proud parents of a daughter Dorothy Roberta, born April 18 at San Jose hospital.

SQUALLS TO WINDWARD

Favorable weather conditions for another bumper crop appear to be in prospect, according to the March report of the Department of Agriculture. But having said so much, the Department grew cagey and felt it safer to predict 1943 as an average year rather than all rosy. Weather and women's hats are unpredictable!

Farmers, however, are looking at the signs of the times. They are looking over their fields and ranches planning how to get the last ounce of produce out of available land.

The farmer's ideas, as he lays his plans for the season, were tabulated in a recent survey. Nearly 50 per cent of the farmers indicated that they feel the consumer is paying too much, because of excessive profits somewhere along the line. About 60 per cent of them believe they are not getting a fair share of the consumer's dollar.

Questioned as to where they believed the difficulty lay, 68 per cent of the farmers queried felt that he retailer was not at fault in the rising prices. Somewhere in the line of distribution, between farm and retailer, adjustments must be made. In spite of long experience in scientific distribution the merchants find it difficult, now, to keep their stores intact, under the pressure of distribution problems. They find encouragement in knowing the farmer understands their difficulties, does not blame them for the ballooning H. C. L.

In spite of everything, the farmers indicate that in many types of production, they will do even more than is expected. But increased acreage alone won't insure abundant food next year. Demands rise as acreage increases. Looks like squalls to windward!

RATION—ONE DATE

The coeds of the University of California are solving their own man-power shortage! The remaining males on the campus at Berkeley are being rationed! A coed holds an A. B. or C card according to the number of men in her classes. Approaching the rationed "goods", she studies their point value, and makes her selection for one "coke" date a month, one week-end night a month, and so on.

Such a plan overshadows that of the philosophic Professor Joad in England, who studied out the "eight times as many men as women" problem and says wives many is the solution! Himself a bachelor, he reports that he likes one woman for dinner, another for dancing, another for intellectual company, another to mother him. One man, he says, can manage several wives.

No noticeable outcry was raised by the women. Tongue in cheek, they mentally viewed his dilemma. For woman, the imponderable, might alter over night from a premarriage dinner-dance companion into a stay-at-home intellectual afterward. Or she might change from the helpless kitten sort before marriage to the possessive mother type later. The "doctor's dilemma" would be pitiable, while the consumer-coed marches home with her rations!

PITY THE DRAFT BOARD

In a welter of contradictory directives, scrambled classifications, "pre-Pearl Harbor" fathers and a generally grouching public, the local draft boards persevere their way onward toward the new national draft of 3,200,000 recruits.

Their job is one of foremost necessity in winning the war—and yet is surely the most thankless.

It is not easy for men to send their neighbors' sons off to war. It is not always pleasant to exercise their government-granted power of decision involving youngsters they have seen grow up, fall in love and prepare hopefully for normal, peaceful lives.

The draft board, because it is within easy reach, catches the brunt of all dissatisfactions. It meets the protests, shoulders the criticism and copes, even, with tragedy.

If the latest government directives stand, the job of the draft boards may be lightened somewhat, for the only deferments of able-bodied men from 18 to 38 will be based on indispensability to agriculture or essential industry, and critical need by dependents.

Meanwhile, most of those sitting on the boards are endeavoring to fulfill their patriotic duty, making the best of a difficult job. They have earned, we believe, a somewhat better public understanding, and even an occasional pat on the back.

ON KEEPING TREATIES

If a few yards of calico would keep the peace these days, how simple life would be. A treaty signed between our government and the Indians way back in 1794 provided that $4,500 be "expended yearly forever" on the Iroquois confederacy for clothing, domestic animals, and farm implements. It still holds good.

The six nations of the Confederacy were the Senecas, Tonawandas, Tuscaroras, Onondagas, Cayugas, and Oneidas. The choice of the tribes in materials for clothing is—calico! Of the sum to be expended, $2,700 is devoted to this cloth.

Many Indian women now work in war plants, so the number choosing cloth was reduced by nearly 50 per cent this year, but Uncle Sam will mail the cloth to those who did not appear.

The treaty was signed in the town of Canandaigua on one of the beautiful Finger Lakes in New York, on November 11—another armistice—and has stood firm for 148 years!

RARE NEW METAL

Rhenium, a rare, silver-colored metal, has been discovered recently in flue dust of American steel mills. It comes from an ore found in the western United States, is heavier than gold or lead, and has war uses that are secret.

German chemists originally isolated and named the metal. The scientific terms, to the lay vocabulary mean little, but the upshot is that it is useful for slowing down or speeding up reactions in some patented chemical processes similar to those involving tungsten and manganese.

Many discoveries and inventions are coming out of the war of which, for the moment, we know little. But the post-war world promises to be a kaleidoscope of new brilliances.

NEIGHBORS MEET

President Roosevelt described as "one of the highlights of my life" his visit to our Mexican neighbors, which he regards as one of the greatest historical meetings. Said President Avila Camacho of Mexico, "We desire a living together free of the perpetual threats which derive from those who seek supremacy." Neighbors are learning to be friends.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The biggest field gun in the Army. That's the 240-mm. howitzer. It's twenty-feet of barrel and must be pulled into position by tractors. After it is rolled into place, its own wheels are removed and the Big Bertha is set upon its emplacement ready to fire at its target some twenty miles away.

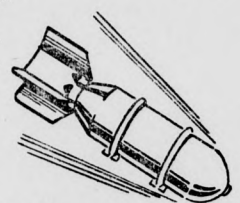

The cost of these huge guns runs into thousands of dollars but we can assure the Army of obtaining them by our purchases of War Bonds. Ten percent or more of your income is necessary. The easiest way is to join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory. Let's "Top that ten percent."

American flyers with the RAF are raining demolition bombs on Nazi cities today. These instruments of destruction so important in razing Nazi war plants, interrupting railroad transportation and other war objectives, range now unto several tons.

The 300-pound demolition Bomb is one of the lighter ones. Bands are attached to facilitate handling and the fins are not attached until the Bomb reaches the airfield, because bending would injure accuracy. They cost up to $500. Your purchase of War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan will help provide Bombs for our airmen. Let's "Top that Ten Percent."

THE BOOK MARK

by marty

"One World" by Wendell Willkie.

Stealing a line from the Current issue of The Saturday Review of Literature: "The Book of the Year unquestionably is Wendell Willkie's 'One World.' Within five days of publication, 240,000 copies had been sold." And it is my guess that thousands of other copies will be sold within a very short time. In fact, practically all book stores are at present sold out and have stacks of orders awaiting fulfillment.

The book deserves its popularity, is my humble opinion. Last evening I received another shipment of the book, and before the midnight hour had struck its twelfth bell I closed the book as a finished job. I was so engrossed in it and had read so swiftly with interest and eagerness that I was exhausted. It was the subject matter that engulfed me. I felt that what the book had to give was what I was eager to learn. Mr. Willkie had written an account of his round-the-world tour which he made by air last fall. In forty-nine days, with only 160 hours in the air, he visited some fifteen countries and talked with people, common and important, in each country. His trip was not one that followed the short northern route but one that crossed the equator twice. His first port of call found him in Alexandria, from which point he went into the battle fields of North Africa and accompanied by General Bernard L. Montgomery, in charge of the British fighting forces there, he went to the front. Egypt, Turkey, Russia, Siberia, China, each were points of destination on his itinerary. The portion of the book devoted to his stay in Russia, I believe is the most interesting and important. He was in Russia for two weeks and in that time was permitted to inspect, question people, and visit many industrial plants. Stalin told him that he was an uneducated man and unaccustomed to sage from Hebrews 12: 11, 12. A passage from the Christian Science textbook will also be included.

Mexican Art Is Topic of Club Talk Monday

Arrangements are complete for next Monday's meeting of the Country Woman's club when members will hear a talk on "Modern Mexican Art" by Donald Sevens.

The program will begin at 3 o'clock in the club rooms following the regular business meeting.

The speaker will tell the story of art in Mexico from personal research. Little is known about this interesting subject.

Sevens, a resident of Campbell, is instructor of art at San Jose State college. He will illustrate the lecture with slides.

Mrs. Ricardo Villafuerte, a former resident of Mexico City, and a new member of the club, will sing two groups of songs, one Spanish and one English.

A group of piano solos will be played by Mrs. David Rutherford, local teacher of piano.

This interesting program on Mexican music and art will be an "all Campbell" program as all participants are residents of this community.

Taking charge of the meeting are Mrs. Hubert Wagner, chairman, and Mesdames David Rutherford, Frank Cutting, Luella Ryan, Claude Grizzle, George Husted, and Miss Winnie Grizzle.

The Tanda Campfire Girls held their Council Fire at the Scout hall Monday, April 26. The girls received their honor beads. After the meeting the group went to Virginia Grattan's home for a treasure hunt and barbecue.

Her fiancé studied civil engineering at State and also at Berkeley U. C., and is now in the drafting department at Libby's in Sunnyvale.

Following the wedding the couple will spend a weeks honeymoon at the coast and will then make their home in San Jose.

Campbell Home Destroyed by Fire

When the fire siren sounded Sunday evening a few minutes after nine o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Light on North Third street was a mass of flames resulting from the explosion of an oil heater.

The elderly couple were only able to escape from their four room cottage and were unable to save their possessions resulting in an estimated loss of about $3000.

The fire was so advanced that it was impossible for the fire company to do much but reduce the blaze and protect nearby buildings.

W. L. White, top-flight war correspondent and author of "They Were Expendable," has started his seventh career—this time bringing the war home to Americans through authentic dramatizations on the new "Salute To Youth" program, heard Tuesday nights over NBC. The famous son of Kansas' famous William Allen White has been newspaperman, Kansas legislator, author, war correspondent, radio reporter, and Hollywood scenario writer. He's shown giving his autograph to pretty 18-year-old Ariana, violinist in Raymond Faig's symphonic orchestra of young Americans.

Rabbit Brush for Rubber?

Studies of the rabbit brush as a source of rubber are being made by federal scientists. A desert dweller like guayule, it is distributed over ten western states. It grows well at elevations around 7,000 feet, frequently on inaccessible rocky hillsides, and rarely occurs in solid stands. Authentic analysis of the rubber content, together with current estimates of the existing stands of rabbit brush, indicate that not more than 30,000 tons of rubber could result from the slaughter of this scrub, the domestication of which is not favored by plant scientists.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For Every To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

DOAN'S PILLS

Are rationed foods and coupons making your shelves look bare of canned foods? Why not start now to fill in those gaps with appetizing jars of home canned fruits and vegetables. It is the patriotic thing to do these days. Remember rationing means reserving commercially canned foods for the boys fighting this war for all of us.

When fruits and berries are in seasonal plenty start putting up a few pints and quarts a day. In the country housewives put up an average of over 200 jars of home canned foods a year. City folk have in the past only averaged about 40 jars. Now is the time for all to put up and stock up an ample supply of fruits, berries and vegetables.

Use the latest approved methods. Non-acid fruits and vegetables put up by old methods of cold or hot pack oven canning can be dangerous. The U. S. Department of Agriculture and your State University have food canning pamphlets. Get from the University of California, Agricultural Extension circular 276 on Home Canning. It will tell you the simple, safe, tried and true methods for Home Canning.

Finally, draw on your Victory Garden crops and eat your vegetables fresh cooked. This will provide wholesome, nutritional balance to your daily meals.
